

Vintage Kentucky

It's in our nature.

From hand-blown glass to spectacles only nature can provide, it's all in Shepherdsville's nature.

Where else can you watch master bourbon distillers ply their craft, dine while watching glass-blowing artisans or sip wine while walking in the very vineyard where it was created? In Shepherdsville, you will find just that and everything else in between.

Conveniently located off Interstate 65, Shepherdsville offers a wonderful selection of attractions, shops and restaurants—whether you are just looking for a unique night out or a relaxing weekend away.

Experience the art, history and culture of bourbon from the First Family of Bourbon at Jim Beam, or take in the intoxicating experience of nature herself. From forests and distilleries to galleries and dining, you'll discover what many already have—it's all part of our nature in Shepherdsville, KY.

Scenic views. Dazzling art.
Amazing spirits. There is no shortage of things to do in Shepherdsville — Bullitt County.

Jim Beam American Stillhouse, Museum House, and Distillery

At the gateway to the Kentucky Bourbon Trail® this 200-year-old landmark features the fascinating art of bourbon making as well as the history of the First Family of Bourbon. From moonshine to modern manufacturing, you will get a new appreciation for our nation's only native spirit—if you're 21, you can even try a sip.

Take I-65 to Exit 112, then travel east 1.8 miles.

Bernheim Arboretum and Research Forest

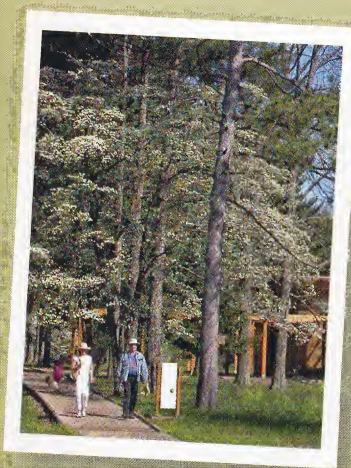

As Kentucky's Official State Arboretum, Bernheim features over 14,000 acres of wildlife sanctuary, a landscaped arboretum and a new visitor center that has an open, airy design combining the latest "green" construction techniques—unlike any building in the region. Packed with indoor and outdoor exhibits including a canopy tree walk, scent and sound mazes, handheld computer field guides, and new trails and walkways, Bernheim offers many opportunities to enjoy and learn about nature.
